

Walk With God

The People of this World are Misinformed:

- They think that God is all love and no hate, or
- They think that God is all hate and no love.
- The “all hate” people don’t think their actions count (punished anyways).
- The “all love” people don’t think their actions matter (blessed anyways).

The Christians of this World are also slightly inclined as well,

Some model God after an abusive figure in their lives and live in fear,

Some model God after the government (give give give, bless bless bless)

We need to remember the balance, and live accordingly:

God is gracious and withholds punishment so that we may repent.

God is just in all punishment and is storing it for the unrepentant.

Remember these sober facts in the midst of your grace:

We shall all stand before God alone and give an account for our lives.

Nobody will stand beside us (husband, wife, pastor, friend).

God will examine our actions, thoughts, motives and attitudes.

Eternity depends upon our lifetime decisions, did we decide well?

How well did we plan for the future?

How much of our lives were wasted in temporary whims?

Do our actions declare that we really believed what the Bible proclaimed?

Did we share the Gospel with other people?

Did we read and pray and have a real relationship with God?
