

Why Sit We Here Until We Die?

· BACKGROUND: 2 Kings 6 & 7

Joram – King of Northern Israel (capital city Samaria)

Ben-hadad – King of Syria (capital city Damascus)

· 2 Kings 7:1-4 (KJV) Then Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the Lord; Thus saith the Lord, To morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. [2] Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the Lord would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof. [3] And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die? [4] If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

· SAME CRISIS – TWO REACTIONS!

· John Eldredge (in Waking The Dead): “The story of your life is the story of the long brutal assault on your heart by the one who knows what you could be and fears it.”

· Albert Einstein: The significant problems we face cannot be solved at the same level of thinking we were at when we created them.

· Problems are always the doorway to the next level of growth – that’s why God allows us to experience them.

· Albert Einstein: Insanity is doing the same thing over and over again and expecting a different result.

· The royal officer was skeptical – and he was also content with the status quo. But the status quo was DEATH! (“I’ll die this way!”)

· The word “dead” can be used in a wide variety of applications ...

Dead Water ... something that is stagnant

Dead Town ... something that is devoid of activity

Dead Party ... something that is lacking excitement

Dead Coals ... something that has grown cold

Dead Motor ... something that has broken down

Dead Volcano ... something that is dormant

Dead Language ... something that is no longer relevant

Dead Soil ... something that can no longer sustain life

Dead Wire ... something that is disconnected from its source

Dead Tired ... something that is worn out and exhausted

Dead Inside ... something that is numb or unresponsive

. The message to Sardis is God's message to many churches today:

Revelation 3:1b (NLT) I know all the things you do, and that you have a reputation for being alive—but you are dead.

. But the four lepers (the most unlikely candidates to deliver the city!) had a different spirit. If we go back, we'll die! If we sit here, we'll die! If we go forward, we MIGHT die ... but we might LIVE! (They hadn't even heard Elisha's prophecy and they still were willing to move!) They had the spirit of ...

JACOB: Genesis 43:14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

JOAB: 2 Samuel 10:12 (NIV) Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The Lord will do what is good in his sight.

JONATHAN: 1 Samuel 14:6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the Lord will work for us: for there is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few.

ESTHER: Esther 4:16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

PAUL: Acts 21:13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

JESUS: Luke 9:24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

. When they were willing to move forward into hostile territory, they found out that God had been there before them to bring deliverance!

. When they returned to the city with the news, the king doubted at first. But when he sent soldiers to check it out, they found out it was beyond their wildest dreams.

. True to form, the royal official was in his usual place, in charge of the gate (trying to keep things "regulated"). But this time, he was trampled to death. He never tasted one morsel of the miracle because he refused to believe it in advance!
